True Spring greetings, through rain or shine! Pat Baran would be pleased to send congratulatory greetings from us to any member unable to be here who has something to celebrate; and she's ready, too, to send supportive "thinking of you" notes to any members you might suggest to her. Pat's number is 315-834-9993. Please feel free to call her.

Dues are due! (past due in fact) for non-residents of Sennett: $20 each. Please check the "Dues Due" list with Kathy after today's meeting if you aren't sure whether you've paid yet.

Program: No one has yet come forward expressing interest in planning for program or entertainment at our meetings. We all enjoy the meals and the company of other members; but the question arises: Are we also interested in a special program now and then at a meeting? Give it a thought. Kathy will ask for a show of hands as we look ahead to meetings for the rest of this year.

ALSO: Even if your contact information (USPS address, phone #, email address) hasn't changed since last Fall, and if you didn't update it at our April meeting, please complete your information on the contact sheet for Kathy's records today. She's going to compile the 2025 membership list from the current information, so if you don't fill in your info. again, you may be left out.

MANY thanks and congratulations to Nancy Brown for her organization, attention to detail, and follow through, resulting in a very successful indoor sale at the firehouse on May 10th and 11th! It was a lot of fun, and very profitable. Nancy and her committee--including Karen Bayus, MaryEllen Perry, and Karen Tarr--arranged for improved advertising this year, and chose setup and sale times that worked well for the venders and buyers!

Available today at the meeting are information and sign-up sheets for two upcoming Sennett Senior trips:

Canandaigua Lake luncheon cruise, and visit to the Erie Canal Heritage Park in Port Byron, in August;

and

Buffalo Botanical Gardens, and the Chocolate Factory, in October. Talk to Russ Harkins if you have questions about either of these trips after reading the information.

If you're planning to go to the Cortland Repertory Theater's production of "Murder for Two" on July 22nd, and you haven't indicated your meal choice for the Hollywood Restaurant in Cortland, please fill out a menu choice paper today.

Lunch choices are:

Antipasto OR Meatball Parm Sandwich OR Chicken Bacon Ranch wrap

Cost of the trip is $65 and is due asap.

A reminder and request: IF at the very last minute you find that you are unable to attend a meeting you have signed up for, PLEASE call Kathy directly to say so. Calling a friend and asking the friend to last-minute-RSVP for you may sound logical, but isn't as helpful, since it is Kathy who deals directly with the location of our meeting and arranges for and confirms--on the date of the meeting--the correct number of meals. Thank you.

And here are details for our next meeting:

Wednesday, June 18th @ 11:30 at Yawger Brook this time, where we can always count on a great assortment of summertime fare, and plenty of it. Julie Howard will bring us music. Cost is $20 per person except for the $10 cost for veterans and 90+ members. RSVP date is Monday, June 9, to either Kathy or MaryEllen.

Now: something to think about while you work up an appetite: In each group, which does not belong....and why?

1. flounder shrimp lobster crab
2. C L V X Z
3. Berlin Brussels Bonn BadenBaden
4. URL HTTP PDF ESP WWW
5. Goldfinger Live and Let Die A Study in Scarlet Dr. No
6. Snowflake elephant tree automobile
7. Huntington, W. Va. Trenton, NJ Baltimore, Maryland Richmond, Va.

(It's possible that in one or two cases there is more than one choice and rationale for the "odd man out"...))
